“The Popular Newspaper.”

The Morning Record and Republican.

MERIDEN, CONNECTICUT.

The oldest paper in the city. Established 1860.

The popular FAMILY NEWSPAPER of Meriden, Southington, Cheshire and Wallingford, and sold at the popular price—Two Cents. Six Dollars per year.

The circulation is 7,000 daily, covering a field of 50,000 population in which no Connecticut newspapers, other than Meriden papers, are sold.

The local and suburban news is complete every morning in the year and the full report of the Associated Press is delivered into the editorial rooms nightly by leased wire.

The Meriden Weekly Republican.

$1.00 per Year. Five Cents per copy.

Gives a complete synopsis of the news of the week in Meriden and vicinity and has an influential clientage among the people remote from the city where the morning paper does not reach, and goes into the homes of hundreds of former Meridenites who have moved to other states.
